Part I. General Information and Application Procedures

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte (hereinafter, "UNC Charlotte" or "the University") provides available housing accommodations to eligible applicants regardless of race, age, religion, sexual orientation, national origin, or physical disability. Wheelchair accessible housing is available as detailed below.

To comply with federal and state laws, the Department of Housing and Residence Life may house assistance animals in its residential building (or halls). If you are allergic to animals or have another medical condition that restricts you from cohabiting with animals, we request that you register with the Office of Disability Services to prevent a room assignment with or near a service animal.

This Contract for Residential Services (hereinafter, the "Contract") sets forth rights and responsibilities of the student and UNC Charlotte in connection with housing, dining, telephone, cable television, and Internet access. The Contract is for the entire 2012-2013 academic year (Fall and Spring semesters) and is between UNC Charlotte and the student whose name appears on the written or electronically submitted Application for Housing (hereinafter, the "Application"). If the Application was submitted online and the applicant is under the age of 18, the Parent/Guardian Signature Form must be signed and returned in order to complete the application process.

As referenced in the balance of this document, a "Completed Housing Application" consists of: a complete written or electronically submitted Application for Housing form; the payment of a deposit (U.S. funds only); and, if applying online AND under the age of 18, a completed Parent/Guardian Signature Form.

Please be aware of the following information as you apply for these services.

Freshman Applicants

Newly entering freshmen are permitted to live in most residential facilities but are discouraged from requesting to live in on-campus apartments. Freshmen requesting such an assignment should realize that the chances of being assigned to an apartment are extremely small and that, should an apartment assignment be possible, there is a strong likelihood that the others in the apartment will be upper-class students. First semester freshmen are not allowed to live in Greek Village and only freshmen who meet the age requirements will be allowed to live in Graduate/Non-Traditional student housing.

Roommate Requests

Insofar as possible and as space permits, every effort is made to honor requests for a specific housing assignment and/or mutual roommate requests. Roommate requests must be mutual and all roommates must have Completed Housing Applications on file at the time the housing assignment is made.

If you are submitting a roommate request using the paper based Application, you must include the correct UNC Charlotte Student Identification Number(s) and name(s) in the spaces provided. If you are submitting a roommate request via the online Application, you must enter the correct UNC Charlotte Student Identification Number(s) on the roommate matching screen. The University will not accommodate roommate requests based upon a preference of a certain race, age, religion, sexual orientation, national origin, or disability.

Application Timeline and Waiting List

Prospective residents may begin submitting Applications on January 30, 2012. Students who submit a Completed Housing Application by 11:59 PM (EST) on June 1, 2012, are granted priority status. Students who apply for housing after the priority status window and/or after all available spaces have been filled will be placed on a waiting list according to the date the Completed Housing Application was received by the Department of Housing and Residence Life.

Physically Disabled Students

The University has housing facilities designed specifically for wheelchair users. Students utilizing wheelchairs who receive housing space confirmation have priority in assignment to those wheelchair-accessible facilities as long as such space is available. It is extremely important that the Completed Housing Application be received by the general priority deadline so that this priority can be exercised. Students who utilize a wheelchair will be considered for priority status on the basis of:

1. The date the Completed Housing Application was received by the Department of Housing and Residence Life; and
2. The degree of utilization of wheelchair-equipped facilities as compared to the proportion of wheelchair users who apply.

In order to be assigned to a wheelchair-accessible housing space, documentation regarding the disability and special need for accommodations must be submitted to the Office of Disability Services. Such documentation must be submitted to the Office of Disability Services prior to or at the same time that the Application is submitted to the Department of Housing and Residence Life. In order to receive priority status for the Fall semester, all documentation must be received by June 1, 2012. If applying for the Spring semester, all documentation must be received by December 1, 2012.

Students who have received Fall semester wheelchair-accessible housing space shall have priority for the Spring semester. The availability of wheelchair-accessible housing for applicants applying only for Spring semester cannot be guaranteed; availability depends on whether cancellations for such units are received for the Spring semester. Documentation regarding the disability and special need for accommodations must be submitted to the Office of Disability Services for Spring semester housing in order for the assignment to be made.

The University does not provide personal attendant care or personally prescribed devices for students with disabilities. Personal attendants are not permitted to access University-operated housing except as set forth in the Resident Handbook's policies regarding guests, unless the student has made the necessary arrangements with Housing and Residence Life and provides the necessary documentation. Arrangements for the provision of attendants are entirely the responsibility of the individual student and should be established well in advance of the time such services are to begin. If the student has provided documentation to the Office of Disability Services that a personal attendant is necessary for the student such that the personal attendant will need access to University-operated housing, then the student must provide adequate certification as required by the University regarding the attendant's background, including, but not limited to criminal background checks as set forth by the University. Such documentation should be provided to the Department of Housing and Residence Life by August 1, 2012 for the Fall Semester and by January 1, 2013 for the Spring semester. If the student is unable to provide such documentation by those dates, the student should contact the Department of Housing and Residence Life to ask for an extension.

Forms for providing this attendant background information may be downloaded from the Department's website (housing.uncc.edu). Failure to provide such certification and to update the certification within twenty-four (24) hours of the assignment of a new personal attendant will result in the University's inability to permit the attendant to have access to residential space and will constitute a breach of this agreement which could result in cancellation of the student's Contract.

A list of local agencies that provide personal care attendants can be found on the Office of Disability Services' website at: www.ds.uncc.edu.

Questions

Should you have additional questions about on-campus housing at UNC Charlotte, please contact the Department of Housing and Residence Life at 704.687.7501. You may also reach the Department by fax at 704.687.4301, by e-mail at: HRLMailbox@uncc.edu, or by visiting our website at housing.uncc.edu. Information of a personal or confidential nature should never be sent via e-mail.

Part II. Terms and Condition of the 2012-2013 Contract

A. Introduction. This Contract sets forth specific rights and obligations related to student residence at UNC Charlotte. The student and UNC Charlotte recognize and agree that Housing and Residence Life is one aspect of a larger set of relationships between student and University. The student agrees to abide by all University policies, regulations, and administrative requirements as a condition of retaining the right to reside on campus. The University reserves the right, through appropriate authorities, to change its policies as necessary to maximize achievement of University goals.

B. Eligibility. This Contract grants a license for secondary temporary use of campus residence facilities and services by the student in connection with the pursuit of a university education and confers no residence rights on any person who is not a student in good standing at UNC Charlotte. Only those students registered for classes at UNC Charlotte are eligible to obtain the license conferred by the Contract.

C. Applicability. The requirements of this Contract apply to all students, regardless of the type of housing supplied (highrise room, suite, apartment, or Greek Village room). The Contract obligates the student to pay full charges for residential services for the academic year (or for the remainder of the academic year if the Contract is entered into after the start of the semester) unless the Contract is cancelled in accordance with paragraph U.

D. Duration of Contract. This Contract becomes effective after the Completed Housing Application is received by the Department of Housing and Residence Life.

For the purposes of this Contract, a "signed contract" is created when a paper Application is submitted containing either the student's or guarantor's written signature in the correct space. Online Applications are governed by the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act ("E-Sign") (15 U.S.C. § 7001). Under the provisions of E-Sign, students (over the age of 18) may digitally sign their Contract for Residential Services with the Department of Housing and Residence Life. The digital signature is applied when a student logs into the housing application and selects acceptance of the terms and conditions of the contract.

The Contract is for two academic semesters (Fall 2012 and Spring 2013) and expires at 12:00 noon on the day following the student's last final exam for Spring 2013 but no later than 12:00 noon on Friday, May 10, 2013. The student agrees to pay $100.00 for each day or part of day in residence beyond that date as outlined in paragraph S.

E. Entire Agreement Modification. The terms and conditions set forth in this Contract shall constitute the entire agreement between UNC Charlotte and the student with respect to residential services. This Contract may not be modified except in writing by the Associate Vice Chancellor and Director of Housing and Residence Life.

Should this agreement be modified by the Associate Vice Chancellor and Director of Housing and Residence Life, applicants will be notified of changes via the assigned UNC Charlotte e-mail. The Department will post all changes in addendum form to the Housing and Residence Life website at: housing.uncc.edu. No other notification will be provided.

F. Period of Occupancy. UNC Charlotte will provide campus housing for the 2012-2013 academic year (or the balance thereof) to the student whose signature appears on the Completed Housing Application beginning on Friday, August 17, 2012, at 9:00 AM. The period of occupancy ends at 12:00 noon on the day following the last day of the student's final exam schedule for the spring semester but no later than 12:00 noon on Friday, May 10, 2013.

Under rare circumstances and only in connection with specific University programs, the student may be granted approval to move into University housing before the period of occupancy outlined above. If approved for early arrival, the student agrees that either the student or the Department sponsoring the student, if the Department has agreed to pay such cost, will be charged and shall pay for the additional cost of such early arrival at a rate of $16.00 per day. Additionally, the student agrees that all other terms and conditions of this Contract apply during the period of early occupancy. All campus housing remains open during the break between the Fall and Spring semesters to all continuing students who have contracts for the Spring semester. The period of occupancy for students who cancel housing contracts for the Spring semester ends at 12:00 noon on the day following the last day of the student's final exam schedule for the Fall semester (and no later than 12:00 noon on Friday, December 14, 2012).

All dates listed within this Contract are applicable to the 2012-2013 academic calendar as approved by the Executive Staff on May 16, 2011. If the academic calendar is revised after the release of this Contract, the Associate Vice Chancellor and Director of Housing and Residence Life may adjust the dates of occupancy and will communicate any changes as outlined in Section E above.

G. Assignment Control. The University's agreement is to provide residential services in University housing, but not a particular room, suite, or apartment, and the University reserves the exclusive right to determine the particular space to which the student is assigned. First semester freshmen are not allowed to live in Greek Village and only freshmen who meet the age requirements will be allowed to live in Graduate/Non-Traditional student housing. The student is not permitted to assign or exchange space assignment given by the University, nor to assign any other right created by this Contract to any other person or organization. To avoid vacancies resulting from late cancellation of this Contract by students, the University reserves the right to contract for housing with a slightly larger number of students than it has regular housing spaces available. Such overbooking may require that one extra student will be assigned to a room, suite, or apartment not normally intended for occupancy by the extra student; or that students may be temporarily placed in a Resident Advisor (student staff) unit. These assignments are intended to be temporary. The University will reassign the extra students to regular housing assignments as vacancies occur due to normal attrition. The student understands and specifically agrees that the University may, in its sole discretion, make such arrangements for a period not to exceed one semester and that such housing arrangements fulfill the University's obligation to provide housing accommodations under this Contract.

The consolidation policy was developed and is implemented to make the best use of residential space. In addition, it is intended to allow those students interested in having single rooms the opportunity to obtain them (when available), to allow for students not presently living together the opportunity to share double highrise rooms, and to be fair to those students who have already paid for single rooms. The consolidation policy is considered to be a condition to which residents agree when they sign the Contract; residents living in rooms by themselves (whether because a roommate cancelled housing, did not move in and/or moved to another room) should expect the consolidation policy to go into effect if a single room Contract has not been signed by the resident.

The Department of Housing and Residence Life requires any student identified as living alone in a designated double highrise room to take one of the following actions:

1. Move in with another resident living alone in a highrise double room (only freshman students may live in Moore or Sanford Halls) or move to any available suite or apartment; OR
2. Find another student to move into the highrise double room; OR
3. Claim the room as a single by signing a single room Contract addendum for the remainder of the academic year (single rooms cost more per semester and the charge begins from the date the single room Contract is signed); OR
4. Notify the Housing Assignments Office and request to be consolidated with another resident within the same building. The resident whose Completed Housing Application came in at the later date will be the student expected to move to the other student's room. The Housing Assignments Office will then notify each resident of his/her consolidation partner, which student is expected to move, and the date by which the move must be completed.

Failure to abide by the consolidation policy could result in additional charges for housing. The full text of the consolidation policy can be found on the Department's website, housing.uncc.edu.

Residents in Learning Communities, Greek Village, or other lifestyle areas may be required to sign a contact addendum specifying terms and conditions for program participation. Residents who fail to abide by the terms of the addendum, are removed from the program by program administrators, or voluntarily withdraw from the program may be required to relocate from their current assignment to another housing assignment as determined by the University.

H. Maintaining Eligibility. The student's residence rights under this Contract may be lost due to failure to meet academic requirements, the imposition of disciplinary sanctions, or cancellation of the Contract by the University after the student's breach of contract.

If the student is academically suspended, the student's Contract is immediately cancelled. If the suspended student submits an academically-based appeal and it is granted, the student is once again eligible to initiate a request for housing through submission of a Completed Housing Application. The University's ability to honor the request is based on availability of space.

No refund of housing charges will be made to the student if the student is dismissed for disciplinary action or breach of contract (see paragraph T).

The University reserves the right to exclude immediately, without prior notice, any student whose continued residence presents a substantial risk to the safety or health of self or other residents, or presents a reasonable likelihood of imminent substantial disruption of normal residential activities.

I. Housing Deposit and Payment of Residential Services Charges. A deposit of $200.00 (U.S.) is required and due in full with each Application submitted. Students who are eligible to apply during the priority Return to Campus Living Period (February 1, 2012 through February 29, 2012) and have a valid deposit on-file are not required to submit any additional deposit amounts.

The student agrees to pay all semester charges for residential services when billed. Checks should be made payable to UNC Charlotte. An installment payment plan is available through the Office of Student Accounts, which can be reached at: 704.687.5506.

If any Financial Aid has been awarded to the student it will automatically be applied toward the student's account balance, including residential charges.

Semester Housing Fees

The 2011-2012 housing rates are listed below for comparison purposes only. Please note that these rates are subject to change prior to the 2012-2013 academic year.

Housing fees include rent and all utilities. Housing fees may also include telephone, Internet, media, and laundry services. Resident Students Association membership fees are also included in the base rates listed below (except for Greek Village, where residents are currently not subject to this fee). The deposit is NOT applied toward payment of fees. It is refunded only after the student has left the Housing and Residence Life system and only if the student has met all financial obligations to the University

J. Limitation on University Liability. UNC Charlotte shall have no responsibility for loss of, or damage to, student's personal property anywhere in the residential facilities, whether by fire, theft, or otherwise, or for direct or consequential damages arising from loss of, or any interruption of, any utility service provided by UNC Charlotte or any other person or organization in connection with residence services. The student assumes all risk of all such loss. Insurance against such loss is the student's responsibility; a parent's homeowner's or renter's insurance policy may provide coverage. A supplemental renter's insurance policy covering campus residence is strongly recommended.

K. Room Entry by University Officials. The student agrees that University officials may enter the student's room during the period of occupancy in accord with the University's Administrative Room Entry and Search Procedures, available in the main office of the Department of Housing and Residence Life.

Note: Authorized University personnel or agents may enter students' apartments, suites, or rooms without student consent to respond to emergency situations, to halt the disruption of university operations, to conduct general and routine inspections for health, safety, and building maintenance purposes, and/or to carry out necessary cleaning, maintenance, or repair of the building, utilities, telephone, cable and/or Internet services.

L. Events Constituting Breach of Contract by Student. The student specifically understands and agrees that any of the following constitutes a breach of this Contract:

1. Possessing firearms anywhere in the residential area.
2. Intentionally setting a fire; intentionally causing any false fire alarms; vandalizing or tampering with any fire alarm or fire protection equipment; violating requirements concerning the use of certain electrical equipment and/or appliances.
3. Abusing or misusing elevator equipment.
4. Intentionally throwing or dropping objects from windows or balconies in any residence hall, suite, or apartment.
5. Intentionally standing, sitting, or walking on window ledges or balcony railings; intentionally placing objects on the window ledges or balcony railings that might fall and injure someone below.
6. Failing to maintain enrollment status at UNC Charlotte throughout the period of occupancy.
7. Intentionally passing any part of the body through the window; intentionally climbing in or out of any window for the purpose of entering or exiting a room.
8. Possession or use of any controlled substance identified in Schedule I and II of the N.C. General Statutes 90-89 and 90-90.
9. Failing to pay charges for residential services when due.
10. Failing to claim room by 5:00 PM on the day before the first official day of classes. A student who fails to claim his/her room as required forfeits the housing deposit and remains liable for a $750.00 liquidation fee and prorated housing charges not to exceed the total cost of semester housing fees.
11. Failing to complete the prescribed check-in procedure.
12. Possessing, storing, and/or using ammunition, gasoline, kerosene, similar combustible materials, and/or any explosives anywhere in the residential area.
13. Repeatedly disturbing normal housing activities; repeatedly damaging housing facilities; and/or repeatedly interfering with other students' quiet enjoyment of residential facilities.
14. Keeping any animals (other than fish in properly maintained aquarium or approved service animals) in University residential facilities.

15. Permitting regular use by others of space assigned to student, by assignment or otherwise, or permitting residency by persons not authorized by the University.
16. Using space for any purpose which interferes with the rights of students to normal residence hall, suite, or apartment activities such as study and sleep. This includes using residential space for commercial activities and all other stipulations of University Policy Statement 19 (see the University's website for the full text of the policy).
17. Failing to comply with policies regarding use of alcohol, Schedule III drugs (N.C. Statutes 90-91 and 90-94), keys, lofts, noise, guests, visitation, health and safety inspections, and technology resources. These policies can be found on the University's website, the Department's website, and in various publications (e.g. Resident Handbook).

M. Effect of Breach. The occurrence of any breach listed in paragraph L., 1-6 above WILL result in cancellation of this Contract by UNC Charlotte and exclusion of the student from campus residence. Occurrence of any breach listed in paragraph L., 7-17 above will, at the discretion of UNC Charlotte, result in cancellation of the Contract and exclusion of the student from campus residence.

No refund of housing charges will be made to the student if the student is dismissed for disciplinary action or breach of contract (see paragraph T).

Except as provided in paragraph H. above, the University will notify the student of breach and the student will then have 48 hours after notice to appear before the Associate Vice Chancellor and Director of Housing and Residence Life (or his/her designee) to present any evidence the student deems appropriate. The Associate Vice Chancellor (or his/her designee) will make a determination whether the Contract is terminated by the breach and announce that decision to the student. The student desiring to appeal the determination must file written notice of appeal within 48 hours with the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs.

In addition to the remedies for breach of Contract provided here, any breach which also constitutes a violation of University disciplinary policies and/or of State or Federal criminal laws may also be referred for University disciplinary action and/or criminal prosecution.

N. Policies. The student agrees to abide by all provisions and policies of the Department of Housing and Residence Life, all University regulations, including the UNC Charlotte Code of Student Responsibility, and all State, Federal, and local laws. These policies can be found on the University's website and in various publications (e.g. Resident Handbook). Failure to comply with these policies may result in cancellation of this Contract and/or disciplinary action.

O. Housekeeping. The student agrees to provide normal housekeeping and to use reasonable care in use of common facilities and all furnishings. All housing furnishings are to be left in their designated locations.

P. Damages. The student agrees to pay costs of repair for damage (normal wear and tear excepted) to the assigned room, suite, or apartment. The student further agrees that costs for repairs of damages to common areas (normal wear and tear excepted) will be paid collectively by the students of the appropriate area(s).

Q. Condition of Room. The student agrees to leave room, suite, or apartment in clean, orderly condition when occupancy ends, or to pay costs incurred by UNC Charlotte to clean the area.

R. Return of Key(s). The student agrees to surrender key(s) on or before the last day of occupancy. Failure to do so will result in the student being charged for a re-core or re-programming of the lock(s).

S. Late Checkouts and Abandoned Property. Because of the time constraints involved in preparing for future housing obligations, late checkouts are not allowed. The student will be charged $100.00 per day or any part of the day for remaining in the residential area beyond the period of occupancy (see paragraph F).

If the student does not vacate the space assigned by the University at the conclusion of the occupancy period specified in this Contract, or if the student does not remove all items of personal property from such space before the conclusion of the occupancy period, then the University may remove all property left by the student (or any person admitted to the space by the student) and restore the space. Any property removed by the University may be stored or treated as abandoned property and disposed of accordingly. The University shall not be liable for any damage to, or loss of, such property which occurs during the course of such removal, storage, delivery, or disposal. The student shall pay to the University all costs incurred by the University in effecting such removal, storage, delivery, or disposal, and in restoring the space. In addition, unless the student's failure to vacate and restore the space is due to Force Majeure (see paragraph W), the student shall be liable to the University for any loss suffered by the University if another student who has the right to use the space is materially delayed or impaired from use by the student's failure to vacate and remove personal property from the assigned space.

T. Refund of Charges for Residential Services and Housing Deposit. The student agrees to pay, when due, the full amount of charges for residential services billed in connection with this Contract whether or not services are used, except as specifically provided in this section.

1. If, during the time of the Contract, the student loses the right to live in University housing by reason of disciplinary action, or breach of this Contract, no refund of housing charges for the term will be made.
2. Any housing deposit remaining on the student's account is refunded when the student leaves the Housing and Residence Life system if:
 - a. it has not been forfeited for late cancellation; and
 - b. the student has paid in full any outstanding room damages or room cleaning charges (housing deposit refund will be applied against such charges owed); and
 - c. the student has met all obligations created by this agreement; and
 - d. there are no outstanding financial obligations to the University; and
 - e. student has not been removed from University housing as a result of disciplinary action or breach of this Contract.
3. To appeal a decision relating to refunds of fees for dining, housing and related services, and/or housing deposit, see paragraph Z.

U. Contract Cancellation by Student. No Contract cancellation by a student is effective unless it meets the requirements set forth in this paragraph:

1. To cancel residential services, the student must submit a signed Housing Cancellation Request Form. The form is available on our website or in the Housing and Residence Life Office. It can be faxed or mailed to the fax number or address provided on the form. The date of receipt of the request for housing cancellation will determine the student's financial obligation to the University.
2. Electronically submitted cancellation requests will be reviewed by the Department and, if approved, the Department will notify the student of their final obligations per the contract, including check out procedures, dates and times.
3. The following dates and times will be used by the Department to determine any financial obligations due to cancellation of an application:

Students who are permitted or required to withdraw from the academic program of the University for documented academic or medical reasons will receive a refund of the housing deposit and a prorated refund of charges for residential services based on time in residence before the withdrawal.

V. Vacating Room After Cancellation. Once a request for cancellation of the Contract has been made to, and is approved by, the Department of Housing and Residence Life, the student must complete all check out procedures and vacate the residential facility within 24 hours of the date indicated by the Department in cancellation acceptance notification.

W. Force Majeure. UNC Charlotte shall have no responsibility for failure to perform any terms or conditions of this Contract as a result of a Force Majeure. For the purposes of this Contract, a "Force Majeure" is any condition deemed by UNC Charlotte to be beyond the control of the University such as, but not limited to, fires, earthquakes, floods, Acts of God, strikes, work stoppages or other labor disturbances, riots or civil commotions, litigation, war, acts of terrorism, plague, epidemic or pandemic. No refund of housing or meal plan charges will be made if the University fails to provide residential or meal plan services due to a Force Majeure, except in the sole discretion of UNC Charlotte.

X. Evacuation and Relocation. In the event that a Force Majeure requires evacuation or relocation of the student in accordance with the requirements established by the City of Charlotte, Mecklenburg County, the State of North Carolina, the University of North Carolina or UNC Charlotte, the student must immediately comply with such evacuation or relocation order. UNC Charlotte shall have no responsibility for loss of, or damage to, the student's personal property that is left behind in any residential facility following the student's evacuation or relocation.

Y. Emergency Residential Services. The University recognizes that, in the event that University residential facilities are evacuated or closed due to a Force Majeure, some students may have difficulty finding alternative housing. In such cases, and in the University's sole discretion, the University may offer to the student emergency residential and meal plan services. As a condition to receiving such emergency services, the student must abide by any emergency policies and procedures established by the University. Emergency policies and procedures may include, but are not limited to: relocation of the student; roommate assignments; restrictions on student interaction, usage of common areas, and ingress and egress from the University and University facilities; head counts and daily reports; and assignments of cleaning duties or other custodial tasks to the student. Failure or refusal by the student to abide by any such policy or procedure may result in disciplinary action or eviction by the University. Any emergency goods or services provided by the University to the student are provided as a courtesy, and UNC Charlotte shall not be held responsible for any personal or property damage or liability incurred by the student as a result of student's continued residence on campus or the provision or non-provision of such goods or services.

Z. Appeals for Charges or Fees. Students who believe that a fee or charge for services rendered under the terms of this contract is incorrect may appeal that fee or charge by following the steps outlined below. Students may review housing charges by logging on to their student account.

Housing Facilities Damage Appeals

Appeals related to housing facilities damage billing must be submitted within thirty (30) days of the posting date on the student's account. Appeals for facilities damage billing should be sent via e-mail to HRLFacilities@uncc.edu and include your name, student ID number, and room assignment. The appeal should describe in detail how and why the bill originated and the reason it should be waived or reduced in amount, and the specific adjustments that are being requested.

Housing, Meal Plans, and Related Services Appeals

To appeal a decision relating to refunds of fees for dining, housing and related services, and/or housing deposits, a student may request a review in writing. Appeals for housing and meal plan charges must be submitted no later than twelve (12) months after the posting date of the charge or fee on the student's account. The request should be mailed to: Refund and Appeals Committee, c/o Housing and Residence Life, UNC Charlotte, 9201 University City Boulevard, Charlotte, NC 28223-0001.

Part III. Terms and Conditions for Meal Plans

Meal plan selections may be made through the Meal Plans and 49er Card Office or the housing application. If using the housing application, remember to:

1. Carefully read the terms and conditions of the Contract for Meal Plans.
2. Complete the Meal Plan section of the Application.

Contract Terms and Conditions for Meal Plans For Academic Year 2012 – 2013

The University offers a variety of meal plans to meet the diverse dining needs of students. Students who are assigned housing accommodations in the highrises (Holshouser, Scott, Moore, and Sanford Halls) and the suites (Cedar, C.F. Lynch, Hawthorn, Hickory, Miltimore, Oak, Sycamore, and Witherspoon Halls) are required each semester to purchase one of the “required area” meal plans offered.

Meals are used at the Residence Dining Hall and Crown Commons. Declining Balances are used at all University Dining locations. Food purchased with Declining Balance is tax free.

Depending on choice of housing, all first-year freshmen must choose from the meal plans designated for freshmen; upper-class students may choose from any of the meal plans offered.

During the period of occupancy, UNC Charlotte will provide meals according to the plan selected. If a student in “Required” Housing fails to select a meal plan, the University will select a meal plan. The Student will be charged each semester for a meal plan selection. Non-use of a meal plan by student in “required” housing does not nullify the requirement to purchase a plan each semester nor nullify the charge for an unused plan.

Students with special dietary needs should contact the Meal Plans and 49er Card Office at 704.687.7337 or 877.497.4949.

Meal plans purchased in the Fall semester will automatically be renewed for the Spring semester for all students unless changed or cancelled by the student.

No meals will be provided during Fall break, Thanksgiving break, Winter break, or Spring break.

Plans offered by the University consist of meals and declining balance (plans A, B, C, D, E, H and I) or all declining balance (plans F, G and K). Declining balance that is part of a meal plan does NOT carry over to future semesters. Meal plans that consist of declining balance only DO carry balances over to future semesters through the last summer session of the academic year in which they were purchased. Only students currently enrolled at UNC Charlotte may access accounts.

Students may change the meal plan selected during the registration period, which lasts through the first day of classes. After the first day of classes, students living in meal plan “required areas” (highrises and suites) will be given one additional opportunity to change their meal plan during the scheduled two-day housing room change period. Meal plan charges are pro-rated. After the two-day room change period, no other meal plan changes may be made for the current semester (unless the student moves to an on-campus apartment).

No meal plan change requests are allowed after room change, 3 weeks after the first day of classes. This also applies to students who have moved from required housing to apartments during the semester.

After the first day of classes, ALL changes in meal plans will incur a $25 administrative Change Processing Charge.

Once meal plan service begins, through the room change period, any cancellation of meal plan will be pro-rated and will be subject to a $25.00 administrative Cancellation Charge. After room change no refunds are issued for cancelled meal plans and an administrative Cancellation Charge of $25 is applied. All changes to meal plans or cancellations of the dining service contract must be submitted to the Meal Plans and 49er Card Office (located in room 175 Auxiliary Services Building).

An "Optional" Dining Account may be used to supplement a meal plan. It is not billable through Student Accounts but can be purchased separately through the 49er Card online website (<http://www.auxiliary.uncc.edu/dining>), Meal Plans and 49er Card Office (located in Room 175, Auxiliary Services Building) and, the Dining Services Office/I.D. Office (located in the Student Union) by using cash, check or credit card. This account may be used for food purchased in all dining and convenience store locations. Purchases are not taxed.
